

It is a shame that the terrestrial broadcasters have to hide behind Washington in order to defend themselves. Local radio has tuned into a plain and non-localized media source with the same old programming in every market. XM has allowed rural America to hear major-market quality broadcasts. Please do not cave in to organizations that cannot compete in an open market! Make them reform themselves to earn the rights to my listenership!

Keep satellite radio on the air!

Thank you